

Please! leave the no-call ruling as is. My home is my sanctuary in this busy world. I want violations kept to a minimum. I do not welcome persons or businesses to contact me when I have A) not requested their products or services or B) Chosen to discontinue use of their products or services. If I wish to establish or reestablish contact, I'll find them with ease.